Eligibility of the candidates who are due to appear in qualifying examination

1. The candidates who are due to appear in the qualifying examination prescribed by the University as eligibility requirement for admission to a particular academic programme of study may apply for admission and appear in the Entrance Test at their own risk and on the clear understanding that in the event of their selection they shall be entitled to admission only if they have secured the minimum prescribed/required percentage of marks in their qualifying examination and they submit all documents, including final mark-sheet of qualifying examination before the deadline fixed for Registration. The admission will be cancelled if all the relevant documents are not received by the due date. University also reserves the right to cancel the admission at any point of time if the produced documents are found to be false/misleading.

2. The University reserves the right to decide the cut-off point for various programmes and may fill up the seats accordingly. The candidates scoring below the cut-off point will not be considered for admission even if the vacancy exists.
